Souris School

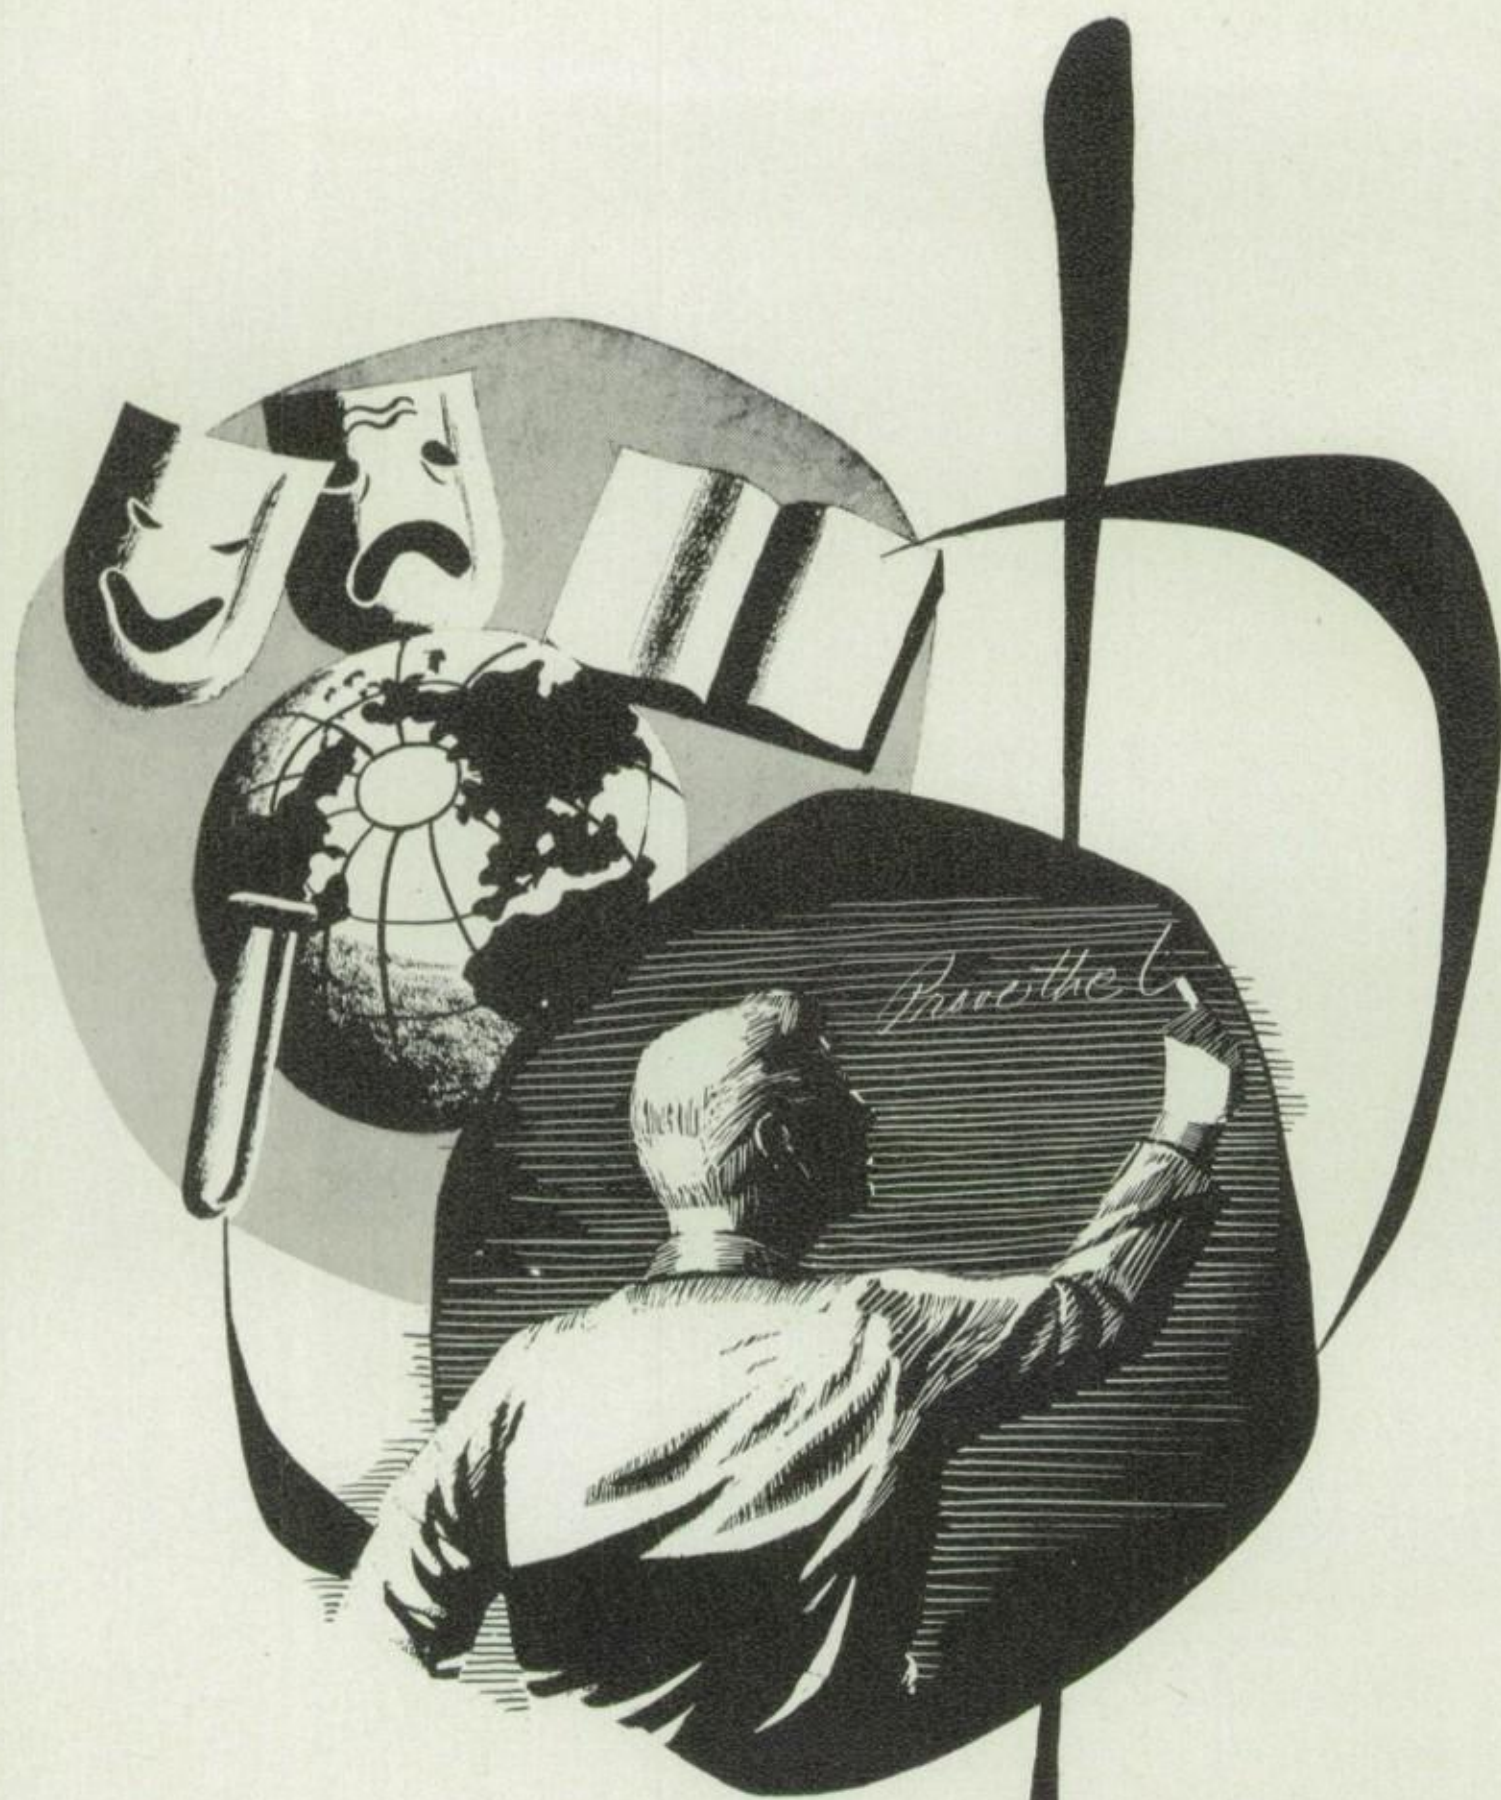

Dedication

We, the Senior Class of 1955, do sincerely dedicate this annual to the school board of 1954 and 1955. Who, through their effort, secured the vote of the community to build a bigger and better school for the present and future students of Souris Public School.

CARNATION

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1955, being of sound minds, do hereby bequeath this our last will and testament. We, together, do will our ability to stay after school to the Sophomores because they already have a good start. Our popcorn on the floor, and gum on or under the desks, to Wesley, the Janitor.

We will our pencils (which we stole from the Juniors) to our teachers, also all the notes we passed, if they can find them and understand them-----after they find them.

I. Jean Grover will my:

Height, to Donna, so it will correspond with her weight.

Love for short men, to Betty.

Seat in the school bus, to Donna, so she won't have to sit on her imagination.

Giggles, to Avis.

I, Sheila Patterson will my:

Typing ability, to Darrell S., he needs something to keep his fingers busy, anyway.

Blue eyes, to Ronnie P., may his never be black like mine were.

"Love" for bald-headed men, to Maevis H., hope her luck is as good as mine was! . . .

Nights! . . . , to Bob C., so he can keep up with Daryl Mc. on this joke about the "jailhouse."

I, Loretta Aasheim will my:

Love for Daryl Lee, to Phyllis, if he doesn't object.

Loren to. . . . Oh well, guess I'll keep him!

Flirting ability, to Deanna I.

Walk, to Ardis, although she has a good start.

I, Darlene Counts, will my:

Nites, to Bob D., hope he gets in earlier then seven a. m. ! ! ! !

Wiggle, to Helen E.

Ability to study nights, to Frances.

"Pen-pals" in the service, to Marian.

I, Eleanor Counts will my:

Hook shots, to Rodney, if he can get off the floor.

Love for redheads, to Jane, so she will get her mind off the Air Force.

My desk, to Siggy, so he can watch the view (although he likes a different kind.)

Black hair (the kind that comes in capsules) to Helen E.

I, Daryl Harrison will my:

Ability to run the projector, to Maynard B., hope he has less trouble than I did.

Flashy shirts, to Jerry O.

Ability to scrub floors, to Reynold.

Humorous ?? jokes, to Jackie N., he's always cracking some, (jokes that is.)

Class Prophecy

On my ocean to ocean flight I stopped first at Milwaukee to talk to Sheila Patterson, who owns Aunt Maude's Non-Alcoholic Alcohol. This liquid has absolutely no alcohol and guarantees no hangover. She also owns half of the Panless Pancake Factory. Outside her huge business office stood three white and blue Cadillacs, with gold S. R. P. inscriptions on the doors. When I asked the secretary for an appointment to see Sheila, she said, "Come back in two years and you may be able to see her." So I left Milwaukee.

I then landed in Minneapolis, home of the Minneapolis Lakers and Daryl Harrison. After graduation he found out he was related to the man who owns the Massey-Harris farm equipment, and had inherited it four years ago. He is now one of the upper four-hundred. He also has his finger on Twentieth Century Fox Movie Studios. He is engaged to be married for the fourth time. Quite a racket, huh? '

I then left Minneapolis and winged my way to Souris to see Loretta. Loretta is now married to an Aberdeen Angus Breeder and lives north of Souris. When I drove in the yard I noticed that there was a buggy out by the door and to my great surprise there were twin girls in it. When I knocked on the door I was greeted by two little black headed boys and by the looks of it, it was twins, again. Loretta, I was told, was down in the milk house, so I made my way down there. Loretta said her hubby was in Valley City at a Stock Show and that it was his fifth time there in a month.

I left the L. and L. Ranch and made my way south to see Jean, who was owner of the largest plane company in the world. She owns some forty planes, and some say she has a secret partner. I guess he is the guy who taught her to fly. She is one of the best known flyers in the world and plans a twice around, upside down, backward, non-stop, flight, around the world.

Our next stop is Las Vegas, Nevada the world's most talked about gambling city. I took a taxi up to the gambling district to see Darlene Counts, Queen of the gamblers. Darlene owns the "Knock'em Down! ', Drag'em In! '. Gambling Casino," the second largest in the world. Her husband owns the largest. I sat down and Darlene soon talked me out of my money. Darlene has a little girl named Di Ree. I wonder who she is named after. I decided to leave Las Vegas before I lost my plane.

I flew to Oslo, Norway to talk to Eleanor Counts. She had gotten married two weeks after graduation, to an oil man by the name of Two Gun Moldy. They own the largest sardine factory in the world. Their slogan is "A Moldy sardine is best." Eleanor asked me in for tea and sardines. Her sardines aren't bad. This ends our journey to see the Class of '55.
